

ROOSEVELT WILL FIGHT AGAINST ROOT

HAS DECIDED TO OPPOSE NEW YORK SENATOR WITH ALL STRENGTH HE CAN MASTER.

Former President Arrived at This Decision After Consultation With Various Advisers—Charges That Root in This Contest Represents the Bosses and Must Not be Recognized.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 3.—Upon the selection of temporary chairman of the Republican National convention may hang the political fortunes of ex-President Roosevelt.

He decided tonight to oppose with all his strength, the seating of Senator Root, and issued a call to all his supporters to stand by him. Col. Roosevelt declares that Mr. Root "has ranged himself against the men who stand for progressive principles within the Republican party," and says it is William Barnes, Jr., of New York, who is to be the real head of the Taft canvass at Chicago.

The ex-president's decision to make a square issue of the seating of Mr. Root was reached after a long consultation with advisers. At Sagamore hill today were Senator Dixon, Gifford Pinchot, William L. Ward, New York, and George A. Perkins, New York, Frank B. Kellogg, and Andrew Rahn, both of whom are from Minnesota, and Truxton Beale, a delegate from California.

When Col. Roosevelt had completed his statement he brought up the question whether he would go to the Chicago convention.

"After hearing what the men I have seen have said," he said, "the impression is that I will not go. I may reach a different decision if any strong arm tactics are attempted. The Roosevelt decision is a decision to oppose Senator Root for the chairmanship were brought about by the telegram sent by William Barnes, Jr., to a number of national delegates getting them to vote for Senator Root for temporary chairman. This telegram declared that 'the attempt to nominate Mr. Roosevelt can lead only to disaster. The doctrine which he has advocated is the doctrine of the platform at the Rochester convention to be subversive of our form of government.'

"In the past," Col. Roosevelt says, "Mr. Root has rendered distinguished service as secretary of state and secretary of war. But in this contest Mr. Root ranged himself against the men who stand for progressive principles within the Republican party in relation to the issues of the present day what it was in the days of Abraham Lincoln. He stands as the representative of the men and the policies of reaction. He is put forward by the bosses and the representatives of special privileges."

Duty of Progressives.

Continuing Mr. Roosevelt declares: "What has recently come to my knowledge makes it clear that it is a question of the absolute duty of every progressive Republican to oppose the selection as temporary chairman at Chicago of any man put forward in the interests of the supporters of Mr. Taft in this contest."

He reviews at length various phases of the campaign and cites the results of primaries in states where such elections are conducted under provisions of the absolute duty of every progressive Republican to oppose the selection as temporary chairman at Chicago of any man put forward in the interests of the supporters of Mr. Taft in this contest."

"In this contest," Mr. Roosevelt says, "I have stood unequivocally for the right of the people to rule themselves. There are many honest men who have not agreed with me in this contest and who do not believe that the people should rule themselves. But surely they must agree with us when we come down to a question of naked right and wrong such as is involved in the effort of Mr. Barnes and his associates on behalf of Mr. Taft to reverse the popular verdict and to nominate at Chicago some man whom the rank and file of the Republican party have declared they do not desire to see nominated. The question of popular rule is involved in this matter, but more is involved. The whole question of keeping faith with the people is involved. Mr. Barnes can carry through his plan only if a sufficient number of national committeemen can be induced in flagrant violation of every principle of fair dealing to seat in the convention certain delegates who have been elected by the people and who have not the slightest right to a seat, and if, furthermore, the convention is content to sit supine while this is done.

"I believe that the expectations of Mr. Barnes and his associates will be disappointed in both particulars. I believe that there are in the national convention enough men, although they have in good faith supported Mr. Taft, who will decline to permit themselves to be made tools for the unworthy methods. No man should be chosen as temporary chairman who is put forward by Mr. Barnes and those men who represent the principles and practices of Mr. Barnes, for any such man could not but be held responsible for the reactionary bournism of the Rochester platform and for the views expressed in Mr. Barnes' telegram quoted above. Under these circumstances Mr. Root's own personality is not the issue. His victory would be the victory of Mr. Barnes, his defeat the defeat of Mr. Barnes."

LIVESTOCK DEALER DEAD.

Chicago, June 3.—Courtney H. Morine, a pioneer Illinois livestock dealer, died tonight at the age of 82. He was for many years the head of a commission firm.

TAFT WELCOMED GERMAN FLEET

PRESIDENT MADE FORMAL CALL OF WELCOME ON REAR ADMIRAL ON THE MOLTKE.

A Thousand German Sailors Stood At Attention While Representatives of the United States Were Received—Cordial Toast Indicated Good Feeling Between Two Great Countries.

Port Monroe, Va., June 3.—President Taft today welcomed a great foreign fleet to American waters when he extended the hand of friendship to Rear Admiral Von Rebeur-Paschwitz, commanding the visiting division of the German navy.

While more than a thousand German sailors stood at attention on the decks of the Moltke, Germany's battle cruiser, President Taft boarded the vessel. At the gangway Admiral Von Rebeur-Paschwitz and his staff waited for him. As the president stepped over the rail of the Moltke, he extended his hand in greeting to the German admiral and exclaimed:

"Admiral, I'm glad to welcome you and to have an opportunity of visiting the Moltke, one of the finest ships I have ever seen."

The president was escorted over the big German vessel, the crew standing at quarters saluting as the party passed.

As the president left the Moltke, the German warship's band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner," and on the gun deck a six pounder barked out the twenty-one guns of the presidential salute.

The president's formal call of welcome over, returned to the Mayflower. A short distance away the American battleship squadron that welcomed the visitors swung idly at anchor. Seven great vessels including the new dreadnaughts Delaware and Utah, dressed ship as the president and the admiral exchanged courtesies. No sooner had the president returned to the Mayflower than the German admiral returned the call and lunched with the president aboard the yacht. Cordial toasts were exchanged aboard both the Mayflower and the Moltke, where President Taft raised his glass to the health of the German emperor and Admiral Von Rebeur-Paschwitz, toasted the president as the admiral left the Mayflower, the crews of all the ships in a double cannon through which the German vessels had passed up the roads making parting salutes. This ended the president's part in the formalities of greeting the foreign fleet. The Mayflower was turned up stream upon the return trip to Washington.

The officers of the American fleet then took up the task of entertaining the visitors. No speeches were made during the visit of the president to the Moltke but tonight a formal dinner was given the officers of the German fleet aboard the dreadnaught Florida. Rear Admiral Ward, commanding the American squadron and Rear Admiral Von Rebeur-Paschwitz delivered speeches.

"JUNE WEEK AT ANNAPOLIS.

Annapolis, Md., June 3.—Annapolis is in a gay and festive mood for the celebration of "June week" at naval academy, the period during which the board of visitors appears and when the class whose members have completed the four year course is graduated. The vanguard of the expected throng reached Annapolis Saturday. Other visitors are coming in on every train, and by tomorrow morning the city will be crowded. The exercises of the week began this morning with the official reception to the board of visitors and will end with the farewell ball Friday night. The reception took place on Worden Field, and the brigade of midshipmen headed by the academy band did the honors. Immediately following the reception an infantry drill by the brigade took place, followed with an inspection of the several departments at the academy, under the guidance of the naval officers on duty. This afternoon Captain John H. Gibbons, superintendent of the academy, tendered a reception to the official party at his quarters in Blake row.

UNDERTAKERS TO UNITE.

Peoria, Ill., June 3.—Consolidation of the Chicago Undertakers' association with the Illinois State Undertakers' association will be one of the important things done at the thirty-second annual convention of the latter organization, which convened in Peoria this afternoon. The new organization will be known as the Illinois Undertakers' association and it is probable that a meeting of the membership of the two associations will be called to formally complete the organization. The associations have a membership of about 400 each.

HEAT GETS ICE MAN.

Chicago, June 3.—An ice man was overcome by heat here today. The sufferer was Louis Kreuzer, 22 years old, who fell while he was carrying a cake of ice into a dwelling in Bufling street. An ambulance physician who revived him declared he was a victim of heat prostration.

London, June 4.—A Serbian detachment of the Thessalonian night attack by Albanian rebels in Ipek in the Vilayet of Kosovo. They overpowered the Turkish outposts, seized the passes and tried to force entry into the town, but were repulsed by the garrison after several hours of fighting.

TAFT WANTS CONTEST HEARINGS PUBLIC

PRESIDENT MAKES THIS SUGGESTION IN LETTER TO COL. NEW.

Request Likely to Have Weight With National Committee—Taft Headquarters Opened—Revel Says Roosevelt Will Have Majority on First Ballot—Southern Delegates to Organize.

Chicago, June 3.—President Taft has written to Chairman Harry S. New of the committee on arrangements for the Chicago convention suggesting that the meetings of the national committee at which contests are heard be thrown open to the public. The president's letter was received at the National committee headquarters today. In it he suggests that Mr. New take up with the committee the matter of open hearings, and that, if the committee finds it possible the deliberations over the contests 230 of which have already been prepared for submission, be carried on in open sessions.

Mr. New expressed the opinion tonight that the action taken by the president will have great weight with the committee. This taken in connection with the previous request of Col. Roosevelt for publicity of the contests arguments, indicates that the doors will probably be thrown open, at least to newspapermen, when the committee takes up contested delegates cases Friday. Few members of the national committee had reached Chicago to night, and of those here none would express a definite opinion as to the action of the committee on the matter of public arguments. The president's letter was the chief subject of discussion at the political headquarters to night, and his declaration of publicity of the hearings is declared by his supporters here to indicate that the Taft managers believe their contests cases are strongly prepared.

The Taft headquarters was opened today by Joseph B. Keating of Indiana, but up to a late hour to night only two eastern representatives of the president had reached Chicago, John Ryan and A. A. Ely of the publicity bureau. Mr. Keating telegraphed Director McKinley to day to hurry to Chicago, and he is expected here tomorrow morning. The Roosevelt and the Taft headquarters have been established in the same hotel, Alexander H. Revell, head of the Illinois headquarters, who returned this morning from Oyster Bay, gave out a statement to night outlining what he said was Col. Roosevelt's attitude toward convention organization.

"We are assured absolutely that there will be a clear majority for Col. Roosevelt on the first ballot," said Mr. Revell. "The only proposition in sight is to develop the strength throughout the convention preliminaries so that it ultimately will be concentrated in the nomination of Col. Roosevelt."

"Absolutely nothing else has or will be considered by Col. Roosevelt and his friends prior to or during the convention."

Edwin W. Sims, acting head of the Chicago Roosevelt headquarters, gave out a telegram received from Oscar B. Hunley, a Roosevelt leader in Alabama, asserting that the two delegates from the third Alabama district, instructed for President Taft had given out a written statement that they would support Roosevelt, because they believed 90 per cent of their constituency favor his nomination.

Henry S. Chubb, committeeman for Florida, declared it was "a reflection upon the integrity of Florida Republicans to hint that they would vote on stand by their instructions for President Taft. He declared Florida's twelve votes would be for Taft to the end.

The southern delegates, it was announced to day, will organize before the convention meets and fight any attempt at reducing the south's representation.

Basing his prediction on his belief that Texas contests would be decided in Roosevelt's favor, Cecil Lyon, a committeeman from that state and a Roosevelt supporter, declared that 26 of the 40 votes would be cast for Roosevelt.

Victor Rosewater of Nebraska, acting chairman of the Republican national committee, is expected to arrive tomorrow when the leading figures in the various campaign headquarters will also arrive. The fight to be made by R. B. Howell, recently elected national committeeman from Nebraska, to take Mr. Rosewater's seat, when the committee organizes next Thursday, is not expected to occupy that body long.

SAVED THE DAY FOR AMERICAN ARMS

Senator Rayner Tells of the Battle of Santiago and Part Played by Admiral Schley.

Washington, June 3.—Senator Rayner, of Maryland, told the senate today that the famous order for what is known as the loop of the cruiser Brooklyn, a part of the fleet, given upon the spur of the moment and in the heat of the battle, decided that conflict and saved the day for American arms. Senator Rayner sought to make this point clear in a speech accompanying an amendment which he offered to the pension appropriation bill so as to provide a pension of $150 a month, instead of $50 a month, to the widow of Admiral Schley.

Senator Rayner said that the government is now paying nearly $200,000 a year in pensions. He said that Admiral Schley's widow was in dire need of the pension and lacked even the means for erecting a suitable memorial to the admiral's grave. Mr. Rayner extolled the heroism of Admiral Schley, saying that a critic generally is a person without reputation who expects to rise in public estimation upon the ruins of those whom he attempts to humiliate. He said that Admiral Schley was universally idolized and challenged the admiral's enemies to point to a single instance where he gave orders when duty summoned him. Senator Rayner said Schley was surrounded at Santiago by a band of heroic captains. Referring to the Brooklyn's loop as saving the day at Santiago, he said:

"Then came the Viscaya, and she made a desperate turn toward the Brooklyn and the Oregon that were pursuing her, but as she did this she was struck by a shell from one of the vessels, and, hauling her colors down, she was beached at Acapulco. The colors, the last of the ships was then making toward the Torquino river, Schley signaled the Oregon, under command of Clark to try his 12-inch guns on her, and with the combined fire of the Brooklyn and the Oregon upon this ship, and with no possible chance of escape, and with her human cargo doomed to certain death if the fighting continued, her commander ran his ship ashore at the mouth of the Torquino river, fired his leeward gun, lowered his flag, and the colors of Spain went down before the colors of the union upon the western continent."

"There is another charge that Schley had to meet that I desire briefly to refer to, and that was that in the conduct of the fleet along the Cuban coast he had disobeyed orders of the navy department. This was not the first time that Schley in his military career had found it necessary to disobey the orders of his superior officers. During the Civil war, at the siege of Port Hudson, when he was in charge of the Monitor, the signal was raised upon Farragut's vessel to retreat. The quartermaster reported to Schley that it was impossible for him to see the signals. The order had been previously given to storm the battery. This was the signal that Schley saw, and instead of retreating he leveled his guns against the fortifications. He was reprimanded by Farragut, but afterwards the admiral called him into his private cabin and congratulated him."

"The time has passed when secretaries of war or secretaries of the navy who have never perhaps observed any military tactics except a dress parade and who could hardly tell the difference between a revenue cutter and a battleship can fight battles with lead pencils and rulers and India rubber thousands of miles away from home.

"And now, all these transactions have closed and Schley is gone. He delivered his country as great a victory as she ever gained upon the sea and she secured it with ingratitude. The greatest struggle he ever passed through was not amid shot and shell at Santiago; it was when the shaft of malice and hatred were leveled at his breast; but he stood with head erect."

CHURCH FILES NEW BILL IN ASSEMBLY

EFFECT WOULD BE TO MAKE HIM NOMINEE FOR SECRETARYSHIP.

Chicago Who Seeks Vacancy Caused By Death of James A. Rose Presents Legislative Act Which Would Provide For Such Cases—Brown Wins Out in Mileage Bill Fight.

Springfield, Ill., June 3.—Representative Chester W. Church of Chicago, who was defeated by the late James A. Rose for the Republican nomination for secretary of state took a new turn today in his efforts to have himself declared the party nominee for that office. He introduced a bill in the legislature providing that in event the high man dies or moves away between the closing time for filing nominating petitions and the time the official vote is canvassed, then the second man in the race shall be declared the nominee. The measure is made to apply to the recent situation regarding the secretary of state's office.

Lee O'Neil Brown's associates have won their fight to collect the mileage and stationary allowance authorized under the constitution for attending the third special session, which is now in session concurrently with the second. Governor Deneen today permitted the bill, which appropriates $25,000 for this purpose, to become a law without his signature. It is expected the obstructionists who refused to vote for the appropriation bills until they were assured they would be paid their mileage and postage for the third session, will now assist in passing the pending measures.

Talk of prolonging the special session until the United States senate disposes of the Lorimer case was taken up with the arrival of the legislators. Leaders of the house, however, do not take kindly to the suggestion. It appears likely that the house will concur in the senate's joint resolution for sine die adjournment Wednesday.

CAMPAIGN CLOSED.

South Dakota Will Cast Ballot To Day.

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 3.—The primary campaign in South Dakota closed to night with addresses by the candidates at various points over the state. Tomorrow the voters will render their decision.

From the standpoint interest centers in the contest for the capture of the ten delegates who will represent the state in the Republican national convention at Chicago and in the Democratic national convention at Baltimore. There are three separate and distinct Republican lists of delegates in the field—one standing for President Taft, one for Theodore Roosevelt and the other for Senator La Follette. Supporters of each Taft and Roosevelt to night expressed confidence in the outcome. The campaign between the Clark and Wilson forces for the ten delegates to Baltimore has been lively and both sides are claiming a victory at the polls tomorrow.

The polls will open at 8 o'clock and close at 5 p. m.

EAR REACHING INVESTIGATION.

Washington, June 3.—With glancing tomorrow to the investigation of the alleged "beef trust" by the house judiciary committee, it is declared there will begin an inquiry into big combinations that will make recent congressional efforts along that line insignificant by comparison. The object of the proposed far-reaching investigation accorded to Representative Clayton, chairman of the committee, is the complete re-construction of the Sherman anti-trust law or the enactment of some legislation calculated to take its place.

DECLARE FOR TAFT.

Columbus, Ohio, June 3.—Politicians to night declare President Taft is practically assured of Ohio's six delegates when the convention takes place tomorrow. The Taft forces were winners in every move made, except in the re-election of Walter F. Brown, Roosevelt manager, for chairman of the state central committee. Mr. Brown conceded that this was a personal victory, however.

KENYON WINS BY HEAVY MARGIN

IS GIVEN MAJORITY OF OVER FIFTY THOUSAND FOR IOWA SENATORSHIP.

Defeated Lafayette Young in Three Largest Cities of the State—Final Figures May Increase Size of Senator's Majority.

Des Moines, June 3.—United States Senator W. S. Kenyon of Fort Dodge, defeated former Senator Lafayette Young of Des Moines by a majority of approximately fifty thousand for the Republican senatorial nomination in today's primaries.

Senator Kenyon's victory was sweeping covering not only the progressive congressional districts in the north but a number of counties in former stand-pat strongholds in the south and eastern portions as well.

In addition Senator Kenyon carried Atlantic, Mr. Young's old home town, and the Des Moines precinct in which Mr. Young resides. Incomplete returns tonight showed that Senator Kenyon had carried the three largest cities in the state, Des Moines, Sioux City and Davenport, in addition to Cedar Rapids, Ottumwa, Council Bluffs and a number of smaller cities.

Charles E. Rawson of Des Moines campaign manager for Senator Kenyon issued a statement shortly before midnight in which he declared that final results tomorrow would show Kenyon winner by a majority of between 50,000 and 60,000.

W. H. Wiseman, Mr. Young's campaign manager admitted that Rawson's estimate of Senator Kenyon's majority was correct.

LORIMER BACK IN WASHINGTON

Junior Illinois Senator Resumed His Seat Monday—Will Make Speech in Own Defense.

Washington, June 3.—Worn and weak, Senator Lorimer of Illinois, the central figure in the greatest election contest fought out in congress for many years, resumed his seat in the senate today. Tomorrow Senator Vern of Indiana, leading for the investigating committee minority which declared that his election was brought about by bribery, will begin a series of speeches on the case.

Senator Lorimer reached Washington early in the day and rested in his hotel until late in the afternoon, when he went to the senate and took his seat in the rear row of the chamber. His appearance attracted little attention, a few senators greeting him as they recognized him in his accustomed place. He declined to discuss his plans, beyond saying that he would make a speech in his defense and that he regarded the senate as the place in which to deliver any statement that he cared to make.

"I have had nothing to say regarding a resignation," he said, "and I am not going to discuss that question. I have been ill and still am weak, but I am getting better and I hope to continue to improve and I shall speak if my strength holds out."

Mr. Lorimer was asked regarding a poll of the senate which indicated a majority in favor of unseating him, but he merely remarked that he had seen the poll.

OHIO DEMOCRATS STATE CONVENTION TODAY

Toledo, O., June 3.—The Ohio Democratic state convention will meet here tomorrow morning. An effort will be made to adopt resolutions instructing the delegates to the national convention to vote as a unit for Governor Judson Harmon for the presidential nomination. Although Governor Harmon carried the state at the recent presidential preference primaries by nearly 11,000, nineteen district delegates pledged to Wilson were chosen and they object to being bound by the state convention with instructions to vote for Harmon at Baltimore and will fight the proposition in the convention.

State Insurance Commissioner Moore said tonight that 620 of the 952 delegates would vote for the unit rule. In addition to electing six delegates at large to the national Democratic gathering at Baltimore, the convention will nominate a state ticket.

TAFT WON FIRST BLOOD IN OHIO

PRESIDENT'S STRENGTH IN DISTRICT MEETINGS WILL GIVE CONTROL OF STATE COMMITTEE.

Senator Burton Gave Keynote Speech at State Convention—Declared Country Faces a Crisis—Final Struggle for Delegates at Large Will Come To Day.

Columbus, Ohio, June 3.—President Taft won the first skirmishes of the Republican state convention, which began here late to day. The final struggle for the control of Ohio's six delegates at large is expected to be soured by the convention meets at 9:30 tomorrow morning. To day's gathering limited itself to hearing the key-note speech of United States Senator Theodore E. Burton. To night the committees elected at district meetings before the convention are in session.

President Taft's show of strength came in the district meetings. He is believed to have gained control of the new state central committee, by winning at least 11 votes of the 21 districts. Roosevelt supporters declare, however, that Walter Brown, campaign manager for the former president, will retain his place as chairman of the central committee.

The chief blow to Roosevelt in the district meetings came in the eighth district, which by a vote of 20 to 19, selected a complete list of Taft committeemen.

The Cuyahoga delegation, voting in executive session, elected Taft committeemen from both the twentieth and twenty-first districts. The names of both Taft and Roosevelt were cheered to day when mentioned by speakers.

United States Senator Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio, delivering the keynote speech before the Republican state convention here to day, declared the country was confronted with a crisis far surpassing any through which it has passed in the memory of the present generation. He deplored the absence from the polls of a great percentage of voters in recent state primaries. Fore-shadowing most of the tenets that will be laid down in the platform to be adopted at the coming national Republican convention, he urged monetary reforms, tariff revision, based upon accurate information, the lowering of some duties with due regard to adequate aid to American industry, a federal incorporation law, conservation of natural resources, safeguarding of labor and a workmen's compensation law, effective steps for peace among nations and other policies. He reviewed the high cost of living, which he traced to various causes, and declared the were not attributable to the present tariff law.

Walter F. Brown, manager of Theodore Roosevelt's campaign in Ohio, was re-elected chairman of the state Republican central committee to night.

In the vote for temporary chairman, however, which was a test vote Brown was defeated 11 to 10.

The convention resolutions committee voted to report an endorsement of the Taft administration to the convention tomorrow.

The resolution reads: "We do heartily endorse the administration of President William Howard Taft."

NO AUTO TAX

Will Be Charged By the City to Outside Owners.

A prominent merchant told a Journal reporter yesterday that several persons in the country had said that it was understood by a number of automobile owners that the city of Jacksonville would not assess a tax of $25.00 on each automobile entering the city owned by persons without the corporation.

Such an action, he said, ought to carry its own retaliation, but unfortunately a good many persons are rather credulous and ready to accept a tale that is untrue. The gentleman who told it said it was suggested by a number of persons, including himself, that it was true, but inquiry at the city office elicited the information that no such thing and ever been contemplated.

This was just as the Journal was certain would be the case if the matter was investigated. Jacksonville wants people to come here and will offer every reasonable inducement and not lay an unreasonable and unconstitutional tax on the vehicles of its visitors.

WHIPPLE ACADEMY COMMENCEMENT

A Fine Class of Young Ladies and Gentlemen Receive Diplomas Fittingly Close the Successful Work of the Year.

Monday was truly an ideal day for the commencement exercises of Whipple Academy and a good sized audience gathered under the trees in the accustomed place on the college campus to enjoy the program of the day. On all sides were the friends and well-wishers of the college, the progressive and loyal persons who appreciate the value of such an institution as this. Spring studies were becomingly displayed on beautiful and attractive ladies and it was all in all a delightful spectacle.

The first number of the bill was Op. XVIII No. 4, Allegro Ma Non Troppo (Beethoven). Quartette, Nathalia Jensen, Dean Cochran, Carlie Dunlap, Vigeo Jensen.

In this as in all the usual numbers, the young artists, under the able management of Director Keith, displayed rare genius coupled with faithful work and superior training.

Rev. L. H. Davis, D. D., then offered an invocation asking the blessing of Divine Providence on the young people soon to receive their first diplomas in a department of Illinois college, after which came the hymn, "The Church's Lullaby."

Then came the regular commencement work which was unique as a musical departure from former custom and it was a happy success. Instead of declamations and essays or oratorical or literary plays, a play was chosen and it was truly a success from first to last.

The following were the title and cast:

"The Hour Glass," by William B. Years.

A Wise Man—Ephraim D. Hatcher.

A Fool—Thomas D. Mangner.

The Wise Man's Wife—Glady's Shumaker.

Angels—Volma Dugger.

Pupils—Carl D. Smith, Fred Stark, Paul Darrach, Julia Huff, Grace Angus, Andrew Eagan, Edith Leese, Ernest Alford, Foster Farnsworth.

The drilling was done by Mrs. Thompson on whom many congratulations and compliments were showered as well as on the young people who took the several parts.

Seated at a table with an hour glass before him Mr. Hatcher, arrayed in somber cap and gown looked the veritable wise man and his work was truly excellent. The entrance and exits were as well arranged as possible and managed quite well. The wise man was truly wise and found his teachings had taken root even more thoroughly than he had supposed and he was amazed to find the condition of things.

The part of the wise man, his wife and the others all were taken with signal ability and the whole play was performed in a manner which would do credit to professionals.

The pupils arrayed before the stern man in his august cap and gown looked veritably like the pupils of the wise men of olden times and the simple minded man who petitioned for alms was a true representation of the traditional jester of the days of yore. The whole affair was admirably presented and won unstinted praise for performers and stage manager.

Another number, Minuetto, Allegretto, Beethoven, followed and then came the announcement of prizes as follows:

For public speaking, Ephraim Hatcher and Miss Alma Blakeman.

Salutatory, second honor, Miss Julia Huff.

Then came the awarding of diplomas and in doing this Prof. Carl Robinson said in brief:

The ideals I hold up before you to day are still worthy. If you go from this place to further studies or into the world be true to yourselves and the best that is in you and the world will seek and have use for you. I trust you will seek further instruction in some higher institution of learning but should literature not be your goal I trust that in what ever sphere of life you decide to enter you will so strive that your life may be useful to your fellow men and acceptable to God.

Diplomas were then given to: Ernest Alford, Paul Darrach, Volma Dugger, Foster Farnsworth, Ephraim Hatcher, Julia Huff, Thomas Mangner, Gladys Shumaker, Carl Smith, Fred Stark.

In liberal arts: Grace Angus, Edith Leese.

At the close the class with their families and friends were invited to an informal reception at the home of President and Mrs. Rammelkamp.

DEMAND IS GREAT ALL OVER COUNTRY

Has a Mission to Perform.

Is Making Nervous Men and Women Healthier, Happier and Better Able to Fight Life's Strenuous Battles.

No other preparation has ever been sold in America for which there is such a tremendous demand as "Tona Vita." The medicine was unknown in this country until a few months ago, and today the sale of the tonic is so large that it has been impossible to prepare it fast enough to supply the sudden and great demand. Druggists from all over the country are sending in wires about as follows:

"Rush more 'Tona Vita' last shipment all gone. Sale tremendous."

No medicine could be so tremendously successful unless it had a mission to accomplish and was accomplishing its mission. It is making tired out, debilitated, nervous men and women, happier, healthier and better prepared to cope with life.

Nervous debility is the curse of this age. It is produced by the strains of modern life. The symptoms of this disease are little vitality or ambition; tired, dragging feeling of both mind and body; nervousness and depression of spirits; stomach and liver trouble; constipation; headaches, poor circulation, and susceptibility to coughs and colds. "Tona Vita" is relieving thousands of this miserable condition. It will positively do this, where there is not some serious organic trouble, in a remarkably short time. The very first dose adds health and strength. The tonic must prove satisfactory or the price is returned by our recognized agent. Don't drag around, half dead, any longer. What "Tona Vita" is doing for thousands, it will do for you.

Lee's Rhubarb Laxative, the assistant preparation is the finest, family laxative in the world. The natural medicinal qualities of rhubarb—nature's purest and best laxative, are obtained in this medicine. Lee's Rhubarb Laxative will not harm the weakest constitution and is therefore ideal for children. It is very pleasant to the taste. Convey & Shreve has the agency in Jacksonville for these two great preparations.

As "Ed" Howe Sees Life

Half the time a man wants appreciation; the other half he wants to be let alone.

Coffee is rarely good away from home.

An expression probably used more than any other, "I see by the papers," etc.

Your private thinking is as near the truth as you can get it. Be guided by what you have thought out in private, and not by what some selfish leader has thought out for you.

Your world is not the world of literature or oratory.

The men who succeed are, as a rule, better than their critics, who do not.

Every man who speaks in public, or writes for print, puts an unnatural polish on the truth.

People are lately not only more liberal in religion, they are more liberal in their social relations. If Hester Prynne lived now, she wouldn't be compelled to wear a scarlet letter on her breast.

People are always saying that they are not jealous, and have no reason to be; but the fact is, all of us are jealous, and most of us have reason to be.

Someone seems to have whipped the devil; haven't you noticed that he is much more modest here lately?

ANNUAL MEETING OF I. W. C. ALUMNAE

Enthusiastic Gathering of Former Students of Institution Held in Belle Lettres Hall, Officers Named For Ensuing Year.

The annual meeting of the Alumnae association of the Illinois Woman's college was held Monday afternoon in Belle Lettres hall at the college, a large number of former students being in attendance. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Thomas Hooper, president of the association, with Miss Anna Hinrichsen as secretary.

Mrs. Hooper gladly welcomed the old members back to the school and expressed the desire that in the coming years the attendance would grow larger. The members of the senior class were introduced to the association by the class officer, Miss Cogill and they were welcomed into the ranks of the alumnae in a splendid address by Miss Anna Stevenson. The response for the class was made by Miss Ethel Rhodes.

The report of general secretary, Mrs. E. C. Lambert was next heard. She reviewed in a most comprehensive manner the doings of the former students and alumnae. She told of the meetings of the various college organization of alumnae in St. Louis, Kansas City, Los Angeles, Decatur and Springfield. She reported the records of those who had died the past year and of the members who had married during the past twelve months. Letters were also read from members who were unable to be present and who expressed their great love for their Alma Mater. She also recited a program sent to her by Mrs. Rinaker, which was given by a college society in 1854, showing that the students at that day were not behind in the art of program making.

She also referred to the gift of $5,000 from Dr. E. T. Welch for the new pipe organ which will be installed in Music hall this summer. The report of the treasurer, Miss Jeannette Powell was presented. She deplored the fact that so few of the alumnae had responded to the call for dues.

Mrs. John N. Ward spoke in behalf of the alumnae scholarship and of the purpose to raise $5,000 each for the seven presidents who had served the college. She laid particular emphasis on the Harker scholarship and in no uncertain terms urged the former students to lend every assistance in helping along this department of college enterprise.

The following program was then carried out:

Vocal solo, "In June," by De Koven, sung by Mrs. Ruth Serlinger Woods.

Violin solo, "The Rose," by Borowski, by Miss Bess Reed.

Vocal solo, "The Rose," by C. Whitney Combs, "In a Garden," Hawley, Mrs. Loren Cannon.

Mrs. Hartman acted as accompanist for Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Cannon and Mrs. E. C. Carpenter for Miss Reed.

President Harker spoke of the endowment fund of the college and said that the college could not live in the past but that today was the time to strike. The college needed a foundation the president said, to maintain its standing as a college. He stated that next year he and Mrs. Harker would have filled a service of 20 years for the school and at that time there would be a great home-coming, the greatest gathering of students of I. W. C. that was ever known in its history. He hoped by that time that the college could reach its goal of raising an endowment of $180,000 of which $36,000 had been subscribed.

In an address sparkling with life and beautifully expressed greetings were heard from the Academy by Mrs. Truman P. Carter and the response was made in behalf of the I. W. C. alumnae by Mrs. Paul Thompson.

The report of the nominating committee was made by Mrs. Albert Metcalf. She said that on account of the home-coming that there should be five vice-presidents elected for the ensuing year, a matter which the association conferred in and voted the election of the officers presented as follows:

President—Mrs. E. C. Lambert.
Vice-presidents—Mrs. James T. King, Miss Mary Caldwell, Mrs. W. W. Gillham and Mrs. Thomas Buckthorpe.

General secretary—Miss Elizabeth Capps.
Recording secretary—Miss Alice W. Worth.

Treasurer—Miss Anna Reid.
Vice president at large—Mrs. Kuhl, class '67.

The meeting adjourned by singing the alumnae song followed by the serving of frappe.

Helped to Keep Down Expenses.
Mrs. J. E. Henry, Akron, Mich., tells how she did so: "I was bothered with my kidneys and had to go nearly double. I tried a sample of Foley Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I bought a bottle and feel that they have saved me a big doctor's bill." J. A. Obermeyer, City drug store.

SILOS AND SILAGE

Not Modern Invention—Chemical Action in Silo Renders Crop More Digestible—Silage a Protection From Drouth.

The storing of grain in silos is by no means a modern invention for in very early times in Egypt, Italy, Mexico and Spain seed was stored in such rooms. In ancient times, however, the storing of grain in such places was principally to keep insects and vermin from it or to keep it fresh for times of famine.

Manley Mills, a farmer of Michigan, built the first silo in the United States; he built it in the year 1870, and while farmers generally have been slow to realize the advantage of this method of storing crops for feeding the lower animals, at the present time the silo is found on many thousands of farms in this country, and it may be considered an established fixture in American farm economy.

Important Features.

Some important advantages of the silo are that it permits the utilization of many green crops that would otherwise be wasted and the providing of a green food in winter, or during a season of drouth in summer. The chemical processes that occur in the silo during fermentation makes the material more digestible. This process is supposed to be almost identical with the change that takes place in the first stomach of the cow. The effect is to break down the fibrous substance and render it more soluble. The effect of feeding silage to milk cows is the same as that of turning them into a green pasture. The silo provides a cheap feed that can be used with good results at any time of the year; it prevents the sacrifice of young stock because of a shortage of feed; it utilizes the corn stalks, takes dried out of water feedstuffs and one has only to make a little investigation to find the silo owners well satisfied with the plan.

Corn Best Silage Plant.
Indian corn is the great silage plant of America. It is adapted to a wide range of latitude and longitude and will produce the largest amount of nutritive silage per acre of any crop we can grow. Fifteen to 20 tons of green fodder can be grown to one acre without difficulty in nearly any part of Illinois.

Many experiments have shown that corn silage contains the most nutriment when the kernels begin to glaze, or when denting is established, and before the lower leaves of the plant begin to dry. If cut before this period too large a percentage of water is lost and the crop, while the greatest development of food substance has not been reached by the plant.

All kinds of silos, wood, concrete, stone and vitrified brick, have proven their merit, so all that remains for us is to get busy and build, and perhaps the most favorable time is between haying and corn harvesting—it will then be ready for filling when the corn is in best condition to be cut and stored. The popular type to date is the circular silo with inside walls rigid, tight and smooth to exclude the air and to permit the silage to settle evenly. In filling, the silage must be packed tightly against the walls, keeping the surface level or a little higher at the wall.

Proportion and Capacity.
If silage is to be fed with greatest satisfaction it must be sweet and in perfect condition; it is spoiled by coming in contact with air, therefore the silo should not be of too great diameter. Not more than eight square feet should be allowed for each row to be fed in winter, then when feeding 40 pounds of silage per cow, a layer about one and a half inches deep will be fed off daily.

When feeding in summer it is advisable that the exposed area be not over half this size so that a layer three inches deep may be used daily. No silo should be larger than 20 to 22 feet in diameter, because distance from the door increases labor of removal. To be well proportioned the height of a silo should not be more than twice the diameter. No silo should be less than 30 feet deep, and to get sufficient depth for a silo not over 12 feet in diameter it may be placed 4 to 5 feet in the ground.

Size of Silo to Build.
In Illinois, silage will usually be needed about 200 days, or from about October 20 to May 10. If we have a herd of 30 cows to which we wish to feed silage during the season (200 days) it will not, as a rule, be well to feed over 40 pounds of silage daily per head; if this quantity be fed 30 cows daily, on an average for 200 days, 100 tons of silage will be required, for which 110 tons of corn fodder must be placed in the silo. We may take 40 pounds as the average weight of one cubic foot of corn silage; one ton of silage will, therefore, take up 50 cubic feet, and 10 tons, 5,000 cubic feet. FACE SEVERELY CUT.

Richard Sweeney, who works on the new Ayers bank building, received a severe injury to his face Monday afternoon. He was engaged in metal work on the interior, when a large piece of metal came down the shaft and struck him in the face, cutting a deep gash in the left cheek. Mr. Sweeney was taken to the office of Dr. A. M. King and several stitches were required to close the wound.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE
Young Ladies of Graduating Class Give Splendid Program Before Large Audience in Music Hall.
The class day exercises of the Illinois Woman's college were held at 10 o'clock Monday morning in Music hall before a large audience, and the program given was of much interest and of real merit. As the processionals was played by Misses Clarissa Garland and Myrtle Walker, the members of the class walked in and took their places, the large class making a row which reached the full width of the spacious platform. Before the seniors entered, however, the juniors appeared carrying ropes of catapala foliage and lined the aisles standing while the graduates marched to the front.
Miss May Hefflin opened the program with a splendid essay, well written and well delivered entitled "The Isle of Destiny," in which she treated of the past history of Ireland and prophesied the future of the nation, after which Miss Myrtle Walker gave an excellent piano solo, playing Sonata Op. 27, No. 2, from Beethoven. The oration was by Miss Esther Asplund, who embodied in her theme the law of love in its relation to the success and power of a nation. The subject was well handled and a beautiful lesson was forcefully presented. Miss Beryl Vickery, who graduates in the school of expression, next delivered in her best manner Miss Carmen's "At the Making of a Man." The second musical number was a quartet, "Music When Soft Voices Die," beautifully sung by Misses Stella Shuff, Lena Hopper, Ruth Stimpson and Ruth Widenham. Miss Louise Gates gave the class prophecy, in a highly entertaining and cleverly written paper suggesting the future of her class mates, and Miss Annette Bearick concluded the program with the presentations to the under-class girls, leaving with them the well wishes of the class of '12.
The exercises of the morning were brought to a close with the planting of the Ivy near the entrance to Barker hall.

Pictorial Review Patterns for July Are Now on Sale

The midsummer styles of these celebrated patterns are doubtless the most charming creations ever put out by any pattern concern, and the woman who has a garment of any description to make does herself an injustice if she fails to see a Pictorial Fashion book first.

You can tell a Pictorial style anywhere you see it—always refined—graceful, out of the ordinary.

The True Luncheon Delicacy Japanese Crab Meat

This wonderfully tasty crab is a true Oriental.
It is caught only off the Korean and Siberian coasts adjoining Japan. Its life in the cold Japanese ocean gives its meat extreme firmness of texture. It is white—on the outside is a faint tinge of delicate pink.
The distinctive flavor and the remarkably attractive appearance make it ideal for luncheons, entrees or suppers.
It makes a dainty main dish for informal affairs, and a very novel addition to formal ones. Its handling makes it an ideal dainty food to be kept in the home for unexpected guests. It can be served cold separately or combined with cold vegetables or heated in a chafing dish.
As these Crabs are caught alive and packed immediately, they are one of the few absolutely pure foods.

JUDGE COOKE GETS HEAVY MAJORITY

Re-elected to the Supreme Bench Over Judge Grier by 6,000—Carried All Counties But Two.

In the judicial election held in the fourth district Monday Judge George A. Cooke of Aledo was re-elected to the supreme bench by a majority estimated at 6,000. Two years ago Judge Cooke defeated Judge McClure 2,201, so that the showing made this year was a very substantial gain and might be taken as an endorsement of Judge Cooke's record. In Morgan county Judge Cooke's majority was 427, a gain of 100 over two years ago, and the total vote cast was less. The vote by precinct is given here-with.

Judge Grier was credited with but two counties, Warren by 1,736 and Henderson by 1618.

Local Manager's Figures. Paul Thompson, who managed Judge Cooke's Morgan county campaign, last night compiled the following figures on the district showing majorities for Judge Cooke: Adams 1700, Brown 410, Cass 915, Fulton 1,000, Hancock 800, Mason 423, McDonough 1300, Menard 179, Mercer 712, Morgan 427, Rock Island 900, Schuyler 117. DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Ward.

The remains of Alonzo Ward, who died in Springfield Monday, will be brought to this city this morning, accompanied by his sister and brother-in-law. Mr. Ward was well known in Jacksonville and for some time was employed at Cherry's livery barn. For several months he has been in failing health and a short time ago moved to Springfield. He was born July 14, 1879. He is survived by his mother, two sisters, Barbara and Bernice Ward, of this city, a sister and brother-in-law in Springfield and four nieces and two nephews of Jacksonville.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Schermerhorn.

Impressive funeral services for Mrs. Jennie Wells Schermerhorn were held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the residence of her son, Dr. W. W. Schermerhorn, 722 West College avenue, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends.

Dr. R. O. Post conducted the service and paid a fitting tribute to the life of the deceased. He spoke of her congenial nature, her kindness and her love for all that was true and pure and beautiful in life. Especially did he refer to her relations in the home, where she established a sweet and abiding influence. Mrs. Schermerhorn had also numerous friends and many with the riches of heaven and imbued with the spirit of the Master, whom she loved and trusted, she shared with them her joys and blessings.

As a scripture reading Dr. Post selected the twenty-third Psalm and the fourteenth chapter of St. John's Gospel, the sweetest notes of the Old and New Testaments, which were so much in sympathy with the character and life of Mrs. Schermerhorn.

The singing was by Mrs. Harold Gay, who gave two solos with fine effect and tender feeling. There was an abundance of beautiful flowers, which were cared for by Mrs. John R. Davis, Mrs. George S. Gay, Mrs. B. W. Smith and Miss Esther Davis. The remains were laid to rest in Diamond Grove cemetery and the bearers were H. W. Smith, Herbert Smith, T. J. Bronson, W. T. Wilson, George S. Gay, and E. W. Bassett.

Hodgen.

The remains of William Hodgen, who died Sunday at the Jacksonville state hospital, were sent Monday night to Springfield, where the funeral will be held and interment made.

Hickey.

Miss Mary Hickey died Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward White, 759 South Church street, at the age of 79 years. Miss Hickey was born in Rock Hill, County Limerick, Ireland, and came to America thirty years ago. For many years she was housekeeper for the rector of St. Bartholomew's Catholic church at Murrayville. On account of advanced years she finally found it necessary to give up that position and has since made her home with her niece, Mrs. White, in this city. She is survived by the following sisters: Mrs. Dennis Murphy of Springfield; Mrs. Michael Sheehan of St. Louis and Mrs. Martin McNamara of Iowa.

The funeral will be held at 8:30 o'clock this morning from the church of Our Savior. The burial will be in Calvary cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Anna Myers will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 436 East North street, in charge of Rev. Clyde Darsie. Burial will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Funeral services for William Darley were held at the Methodist church in Waverly Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the pastor, Rev. A. F. Simmons. The music was furnished by the church choir and the many beautiful flowers were kindly cared for by friends.

Interment was made in East cemetery at Waverly and the bearers were J. T. Boyer, W. R. Turnbull, William Graves, H. H. Burch, William Barrows and W. C. Fleming.

NOTICE, REBEKAHS.

ROUTINE BUSINESS OCCUPIED TIME

Board of Education Held Regular Meeting Monday Night—Supt. Furr reported on Crowded Conditions in Eighth Grade.

With the exception of the report of an inspection of the lighting conditions in the public schools and some recommendations made by Superintendent Furr, nothing but business of a routine character was transacted at the regular meeting of the Board of Education Monday night.

The meeting was called to order by President Davis at 8:25 and the roll call showed all members present. The minutes of the last regular meeting and the special meeting of May 10 were read and approved.

The clerk read a communication from a committee of the Parent-Teachers' association of the First ward in which they recommended that the heating plant in the building be repaired and that the school rooms, halls, cornice and windows be painted.

All properly approved claims were ordered paid and the reports of Treasurer Farrell and Superintendent Furr were received and placed on file. Mr. Farrell's report showed a balance of $6,981.25 in the general fund and in the building and repair fund a balance of $10,523.20. Mr. Furr's report was the year's summary of all of the schools and showed the following: Original enrollment, 2,118; number now belonging, 1,813; average daily attendance, 1,823.17; perfect attendance, 276; cases of tardiness, 1,110; number of pupils dropped, 1,111; number of pupils returned, 961; non-resident pupils, 101; number of school days, 185; number of days in session, 172. In connection with the reports of officers the report of Miss Anna G. Brown, instructor in manual training at the high school was received and placed on file. This was Miss Brown's ninth annual report and she gave as a maximum estimate of the expenses during the year in her department, $200. This was $50 more than last year and she stated in her report that the increase in the number of pupils and the work done has been very gratifying. She recommended that wire grating be put in the basement windows and that a printing press be installed at the high school.

After giving his report Mr. Furr spoke of the crowded condition of the high school building and of the lighting in the school buildings of the city. The substance of his remarks is given here with "We have five rooms of eighth grade boys and girls and only four rooms in the high school building for them. That means that one of the classes occupies a study hall and during their study periods some of the pupils have to use the eighth grade chapel, which is not furnished with desks, making it very inconvenient for them, especially when they have any writing to do.

"In the lighting of a school room the supposition is that the glass space should be one-fourth or one-fifth of the floor space of the room. There is no school room in the city which has the proper amount of light, although the ventilation of the school rooms is good. In the first place the windows are too far down from the ceiling so that the light goes up and not down, as it should. The windows should be on the left side and should be built as close to the ceiling as possible."

Member Rogerson called attention to the matter of sprinkling Jordan street this summer and it was referred to the chairman of the high school committee with power to act.

Mr. Furr called attention to the crowded condition of the high school study hall and on motion of Member Clappitt the board will take up the matter with the superintendent and the principal. After this action the board adjourned.

Now is the time to buy choicest home grown strawberries. Ask your grocer to show you Schurz at the rate of $2.25 per case.

SCHOOL CENSUS.

The school census of the city, which has been taken by the Board of Education has been completed and some of the books have been filed with the clerk. The census in the First ward was taken by W. C. Only 50 Women Can Join The Hoosier Cabinet Club for $1.00

After you study the above picture you will not wonder that women are anxious to join the Hoosier club, when by so doing they have a Hoosier Cabinet delivered to their homes on payment of only $1.00. Think of the hundreds of needless steps every woman you know could save by having her table, pantry and cupboard, with all her tools and supplies centered in one spot.

Your energy instead of being wasted is saved and the time spent in your kitchen—the least pleasant part of your work—is reduced by one-half, the moment this famous Hoosier Cabinet comes into your home.

The Hoosier company sends its 3,000 agents a limited number of Hoosier Cabinets each year to be sold under direct supervision of the factory on the famous Hoosier Club Plan.

This year most cities received only 25 cabinets. Our urgent request secured us 50 of these cabinets for the ladies of Jacksonville.

Only 50 women, therefore, can join the club and have a Hoosier Cabinet delivered immediately on payment of $1.00; balance in a few weekly payments of $1.00. Many already have enrolled.

The Club Plan differs radically from the installment plan which often is linked with high prices and unknown goods. The low price of the Hoosier Cabinet is fixed everywhere by the factory. No Hoosier agent can sell for less or more on any terms.

So club members get a great benefit from the liberal club terms. The club probably will be filled very quickly. Those who want Hoosier Cabinets should enroll their names at once.

Baldwin of Champaign and Miss Maud Johnson of Robinson, Ill., former members, were present to enjoy the function. Dr. Ames is class officer for the Juniors.

Andrew Russel entertained the members of the Illinois college and Millikin university baseball teams at a dinner given Monday evening at 7 o'clock at Peacock Inn. The coaches of the teams, the managers and also several teachers were included in the list of guests. On account of the Senior Prom and the desire of the Millikin men to catch an early train for Decatur the usual speaking was dispensed with. An elegant four course dinner was served and in no uncertain terms the boys expressed their appreciation to Mr. Russel.

The annual senior prom was held Monday evening in the Illinois college gymnasium. A large number of the students and their friends were present and the program of dances was greatly enjoyed. The committee in charge of the event was Miss Lillian Havenhill and Julian Capps. Refreshments were served by W. S. Ehline and brother.

MODERN WOODMEN HONOR THEIR DEAD

MEMORIAL SERVICES WERE HELD SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT JACKSONVILLE CEMETERY.

Judge Cleary Made Address Giving
Reasons for Opposition to the Chicago
Plan for Increased Rates—
Speaker Believes That Critical
Time Has Come in Life of Order.

The annual Woodmen memorial service was held Sunday, when the principal services were held at Jacksonville cemetery, where Judge M. H. Cleary of Galena was the speaker. Particular interest attached to Judge Cleary, because he is the president of the association of Woodmen members known as Insurgents and opposing the officers' plan of increased rates. Judge Cleary gave a very clear line of reasoning why the rates should not be increased as the officers have planned and his remarks were frequently applauded. The cemetery services were held after the long parade had moved to the cemetery from M. W. A. hall.

Judge Thompson was introduced chairman of the day by John N. Joaquin, past venerable consul of Camp 1012. Judge Thompson expressed the honor he felt in being called upon to preside and later when he introduced Judge Cleary, whom he has known for a good many years, paid compliments to the ability and sincerity of the speaker.

The program included several sections by the Jeffries' band and several by the Orphean quartet—Messrs. Richardson, Smith, Magill and Virginia. The invocation was by Rev. Walter Spoons. The list of deceased members was read by John N. Joaquin and altogether the exercises were of a very impressive character. Flowers were placed upon the graves of all deceased members in all of the cemeteries about Jacksonville and wherever members of the Jacksonville camps are buried, even though in distant states their graves were strewn with flowers.

On the platform Sunday C. R. Knollner, venerable consul of 912, and the members of the committee of arrangements sat with the others mentioned. Parts of Judge Cleary's excellent address are as follows:

History of the Order.
"We gather in the hallowed spot in response to the highest impulse of humanity. We are actuated by noble feelings when we pay tribute to the memories of the good and great and strew garlands on their graves. Woodcraft asks us to gather to day in that same spirit in which the order came into existence.

By gathering to day we testify to the efficiency of this order which has lived through 29 years and its record is one of great benefit, felt in all parts of the world.
"And to day as we strew garlands of flowers upon the graves of the neighbors we may well think of the possibility of the death of this order itself. It was born in a fraternal spirit and its policies were along lines which appealed to men and so grew from hope to a giant. To day there are twelve hundred thousand of men bound together by ties of kinship and mutual financial interests. The weak have learned to look upon the order for help when no longer able to care for themselves. But I want to say to you that the giant of hope is fading and its very existence is now in the balance. Its life depends to day upon the capacity, integrity and fidelity of its members and not of its officers. These same officers have in stealth plotted against the order and in public have borne false witness against it. If you are faithful the ways for relief.

"There are several ways of obtaining relief and help in this present crisis, first, the courts are open to us and our cause is just. The objections the rank and file have to the arbitrary increase in rates proposed appeals to the sense of justice and all just hearts will rebel at the proposition. I want to say to you that justice goes a long way in our courts and the laws must be harsh, indeed if it is not possible by making a proper effort to secure absolute and unqualified justice. The law of Illinois on fraternal insurance is still an infant, but it will develop properly with passing time. A second remedy, is that given by recent legislation, the Donahue bill, which provides the members of the order with a right to vote upon the opposition. I know the history of that bill and I believe that it is possible for us as members to see to it that our officers give us a fair vote on this proposition. The third remedy is for us all to stay in this order and if need be to pay the increased assessments until the next head camp meets, which will be about a year and a half after the rates go into effect. To the next camp we can elect delegates not under the influence of the pay roll and we can undo anything wrong which has been done and handle it in the proper way. I mean to stay in the order, although it will cost me $108 to do it, but I will do it if for no order will live and its future depends upon your actions. In the days of the Romans when Cleero addressed them with oratory his hearers were moved to tears on swayed with enthusiasm. But when the Greeks listened to Demos then they were so moved by his spirit that they said "Let us rise as one man and go and fight Philip. And so I say to you to day, let us rise and go and defend our order in the days of its need. Lend your influence and support that the order may not cease to be. I want to say that if Woodcraft dies that fraternal insurance goes out of the world as a potential factor. But woodcraft can live if its members are loyal and I want you to remember again that the powers are in your hands.

other reason than to get a crack at those fellows who have attempted to put these unjust burdens upon us. The Springfield Hearing.

"In the hearing at Springfield I made W. A. Northcott admit that each policy in the Woodmen had been sold with the direct promise that the rate should not change during the life of the holder of the said policy. They say that the rates are too low and inadequate. The policy, which each Woodman holds has a contract written on the back, which says that if at any time there is not enough money in the treasury to pay policies coming due that the officers may make any necessary levies upon the membership. When the officers are reminded of the terms of that contract they admit that such is the contract, but say that it calls for the frequently that you will quit the order. Then they go on to say in an abstract and confounding way that Woodmen are missing now in the old ages. Their logic is about like this, that if the members had been young enough to die earlier or when young that the order would have been better off; that there would have been no missing in the old ages and consequently no trouble about paying premiums. An insurance society is just like a community and the relationship between youth and old age must be normal. This fact I will admit. There can't be missing in the old ages, it won't work. This is true as I have said of community and it is true of the old line insurance societies, as well as the fraternal. There must be the proper relationship between youth and old age.

The Chicago Plan.
"The Chicago plan means that the officers proposed the raising of the rates in order to get a large reserve fund, which they say is necessary to the life of their order. Once this reserve fund is raised it must be kept intact and nothing from it can be used for paying death loss except the interest. So they are asking you to day to raise a fund so large that the interest from it will provide for any shortage of funds instead of making a direct levy for such funds whenever the time shall come that the funds are needed. The Chicago plan increases insurance in the M. W. A. according to various ages, from $7 to 659 per cent. My rate has been $1.35 and under the new plan it would be $9.00. I say that the reserve fund plan is a menace to the life of this society, that the plan was born in iniquity and with unrighteousness the officers are to day seeking to foist it upon the rank and file of this great order. With loyalty and unit of purpose we can defeat them and I believe that the Woodmen will stand together and see to it that Woodcraft lives along the lines on which it was founded 29 years ago and on which it has sustained such a truly wonderful and substantial growth."

List of Deceased Members.
The first death of Woodmen in Jacksonville was Martin Vasconcellos, who passed away Oct. 25, 1888, and is buried in Jacksonville cemetery. The last member to die was Henry J. Johnson, whose death occurred Jan. 17, 1912. The list of dead as read Sunday by John N. Joaquin was as follows:

Charles Sable, 89 Cook St., Rochester, N. Such a recommendation coming from Mr. Sable is direct and convincing evidence of the great curative qualities of Foley's Kidney Pills. J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

SERMON FOR THE GRADUATES OF 1912

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE AT GRACE M. E. CHURCH WHERE LARGE AUDIENCE ASSEMBLED.

Dr. J. W. Miller Delivered Splendid
Address With "Things Worth
While as Theme"—President
Harker Gave Words of Counsel to the Seniors.

The baccalaureate of Illinois Woman's college was held Sunday night at Grace M. E. church, where a great audience assembled. The sermon was by Dr. J. W. Miller, pastor of Grace church, and the address to the graduates was given by Dr. Harker. The church had been decorated with spring flowers for the occasion and the musical was a special feature. The Illinois Woman's College Glee club, under the direction of Mr. William P. Phillips sang an anthem and led in the singing of the several hymns. Miss Louise Miller of the College of Music faculty sang "The Plains of Peace." J. Philip Read was at the organ and the order of exercises was as follows: Organ prelude, hymn, the Apostles Creed, prayer by Rev. W. S. Phillips, anthem "Come Unto Me Ye Weary," scripture reading by Dr. F. A. McCarty, announcements, solo by Miss Miller, hymn, sermon, president's address, hymn and benediction. Altogether it was a service of great impressiveness.

Things That Count.
"Living For Things That Count" was the theme of Rev. J. W. Miller's address before the graduates of the Illinois Woman's college and their friends Sunday night at Grace church. A few paragraphs are given:

"We are all to be congratulated on this commencement of the 66th year of the noble institution dedicated for the purpose of the education of women of this state and surrounding commonwealths. Our thanks are due to the Father of all mercies whose guidance has been our lot all the past, whose love is our crown today and whose strength is our hope for the future. Each year adds to our grateful remembrance of those whose generosity in other years made possible these most praise worthy privileges to day.

"What a beautiful history fills the record of the years. Not only during the past 66 years has happened in connection with the Woman's college to bring the blush of shame to any friend. During the past 17 years there have been no deaths, but little serious sickness among the students or faculty. Coming and going through those halls a host of women who have gone forth bearing an atmosphere of christian culture, wielding an influence of refinement at the home and the social life that has been fragrant and inspiring. How they have enriched the present generation as christian mothers, as teachers whose lives as well as precepts have borne the rich fruit of character. Judged by that ancient standard, 'Their Fruits' this institution is worthy of the highest praise, worthy the gifts and confidence of men. The progress it has made is the surest evidence of men's appreciation of its worth. The Woman's College has friends and it holds them because of itself and the work it does. It would be the greatest mystery disappointing, contradictory and gloomy, if this college did not have an ever increasing number of friends whose love and loyalty bore constant fruit.

This great state has built many worthy institutions for the care of its citizens and for their culture and happiness. I have never seen in any city of the state so many evidences of the wisdom of humanity and charity of all the virgin people crystallized into institutions of care and training as adorn the streets of this little city. Occupying a worthy place among these state institutions is the institution represented here tonight, none more fair than this Christian college.

"Among the things worth living for, self improvement was strongly emphasized. Private life as well as public life must be improved and sustained. Public achievement is too often the goal of men's lives. Another thing worth living for is gratefulness. This is a beautiful quality strongly emphasized in scripture. 'In every thing give thanks.' It is one of the qualities often missed these days among young men and women. There is hardly another more admired among the same class. Nor is the absence of it less deplorable. There is no surer guarantee of friends. It is a safe guard against penitence and jealousy. How much the world prizes integrity. Does it not need emphasis also? It is the very foundation of the social and business world. There are many men who long ago would have retired for lack of men they could trust. Integrity draws the highest salary. Mr. Bryan recently said integrity in political words outlasts everything else. That with every break down in the political history of men there was first the break down in moral character. Integrity is to all our other qualities what the air is to the living world.

"Do not forget that in the practice of all the virtues patient persistence wins the crown. God counts the results of our lives more upon the struggle that we have made than the achievement. There are many people we disdain, whom God knowing better the fight they are putting up to be somebody, picks up and crowns. When we stand face to face with Him the question He will ask us not so much what we have achieved, but have we lived our best? It will be well with us if we can say: 'I did my level best.'"

President's Harker's Address.
Young Women of the Graduating Class:

You are completing now a kind of enjoyment that comes to completion only when you have completed your college course and have finished the task set before you; and there now come to you the joy of achievement, "the well done" of your teachers, and the honorable recognition which the world delights to give all who have succeeded. We welcome you into the ranks of Woman's College Alumnae, a most honorable band, now numbering more than a thousand; and we give you credentials which will admit you to all the rights and privileges of those advanced to the same rank here and everywhere. We congratulate you, and rejoice with you.

But as you thus stand on the threshold of the college, to go out into the more general and larger life of the world, let me remind you that what is happening here now is not the rule of life, not rather its exception. The rule of life is not the course completed, not the task finished, not the journey ended. There is a great glory in the completed course; but, rightly seen, there is a greater glory still reserved in some course which God marks out for us, so comprehensive that its completeness reaches away beyond our years, however prolonged, into the unseen vista of eternity.

This must be so, or life would hardly be worth living. Our time is so short here, our strength so small, that any task we can complete, must be little tasks; any ideal we can attain must be a comparatively low ideal; any course we can wholly master, must be very limited indeed. And God, who orders our lives, and all lives, has greater tasks whose completion requires the co-operation of thousands of His nobles. He sets us at our post, and we labor on, and fall at our post, the task still uncompleted. Other workers take up our tools, but God's great work goes on to its accompanishments.

The greater truth is, that God's greatest workmen seldom complete their work; God's greatest heroes seldom see the victory in their wars. Abraham, Isaac and Jacob never found the city which they sought. Moses never entered Canaan. Joshua did not conquer the Canaanish tribes. In the eleventh chapter of Hebrew where the roll of honor of Old Testament heroes is called, the record is that every one died in faith, not having received the promise. Not one of them seemed to finish his task, or receive his reward; but labored and strove to the very end, and then laid down his work unfinished in disappointment and apparent defeat, for some one else to take up and complete.

And the same is true for all God's New Testament heroes, even up to the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. The men and women who built this Woman's college had the vision that theirs was the duty and the toll and the sacrifice; but they too died, not having realized the promise. God gives to a father and a mother the ideal of the family; but frequently the years go by, and at the end with broken hearts they bend in tears to the graves of all their hopes. He calls His heroes into the battle for righteousness in city and state and nation, and they enter into it bravely, and fight a good fight manfully, but they die fighting, and do not receive a victor's crown. They, too, die in faith, not having realized the promise.

Let us not think then that the laurel wreath or the victor's crown, or the applause of friends are the signs of life's successes. God's greatest tasks are the unfinished tasks. His greatest heroes are the uncrowned heroes. Let us not be elated if He calls us to short courses that are easily completed; or to little tasks that are over and done in a few brief years. Let us rather rejoice if He calls us into the labor of a life, with courage and vision which reaches beyond both our vision and our years. Let us be glad now if we may be done with things about which we clap our hands tomorrow that they are completed. But rather let us ask Him to try us with something worth while in life and character for the generations that are to follow us something that will keep us ever growing up with its growth, and something that will reach over all the coming years.

Let us pray that we may be counted worthy to dig wells out of which we may not drink, and to plant orchards of whose fruit we may not eat, that we might rise to the sublime height of the Psalmist when he prays that God's work may appear unto him, and that the glory of the work may be reserved for his children.

Young women, my heart's desire for you and for myself tonight is that with such a vision of life's work before us, we may take up its daily round of duty and labor on in patience to the end, with courage unabated, with zeal undiminished, having our joy in the work itself, not thinking over much about life's baccalaureates. Happy will it be for us if we are counted worthy to labor and to wait, happy even if need be to die in faith not having attained the promises, and perfectly content to wait for our reward until we see Him face to face. We would only that we are faithful to His daily grace, and diligently active in fulfilling every duty which He assigns.

"I got some of Foley's Kidney Pills and after taking them for a few days there was a wonderful change in my case, for the pain entirely left my back and hips and I am thankful there is such a medicine as Foley's Kidney Pills. THE KING'S BIRTHDAY.
London, June 3.—Today was the 47th birthday anniversary of King George, who was born in Marlborough house, June 3, 1867. His majesty spent the day quietly with his family. During the forenoon the members of the diplomatic corps called at the palace and left messages of congratulation in behalf of their respective sovereigns. The anniversary was celebrated in the customary manner today at all naval and military stations throughout the empire. In London and at all home stations, however, the official observance of the anniversary will not take place until June 14.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others that he neglects himself. A person causes balance. Prof. Suberrod, of Paris, France, has inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Seville's Hairdressing.

Seven straight for the Cubs. Watch 'em.

"Ty" Cobb is sixth in the list of American league batters with a percentage of .357.

Napoleon Lajoie is leading the American league in stick work with the fat percentage of .428.

The "Plunk" held up yesterday and the White Sox were unable to win from the Champs.

Some team had better slip the books around this "Rube" Marquard or he will shatter the National league pitching record, having won eleven straight games.

Half of the Boston Speed Boys is setting the pace for the American league pitchers with seven wins and no defeats.

"Home Run" Baker was there again yesterday with one of his home run whallops that made the Giants take in their flag during the world's series last fall.

Sir James Callahan was "run" from the game yesterday by Empire Westervelt. It is very seldom that he gets into any arguments with the "umps."

Ex-utility "Heinie" Zim is strong with the stick since he "got on steady," still leading the National league batters with the grand average of .422. He has made four home runs, eleven batters and seven triples. That isn't as bad as it could be.

CHAMPS WIN BY OPPORTUNE HITTING

TAKE SECOND GAME OF SERIES FROM SOX.

Score 8 to 4—Chicago Uses Four Pitchers—Baker Star With Stick—Callahan Put Out of Game.

Chicago, June 3.—Philadelphia battered Chicago hard and at opportune times today and won 8 to 4. Philadelphia pitched against ball until the eighth when the locals started a batting rally which netted two runs and was stopped only on a decision which proved unpopular to spectators and players. Manager Callahan argued with Empire Westervelt and was put out of the game. Because of a noisy demonstration policemen walked to the club house with Empire Westervelt. No violence was offered him, however. Score:

Grain Letter.

Chicago, June 3.—Wheat—Absence of rain in Kansas and Nebraska the past two days was followed by numerous reports from reputable experts, indicating serious crop losses. The critical condition reported led many shorts to cover and stand a new wave of investment buying through commission houses. Offerings were quite limited, although at the top of the advance there was a fair amount of realizing by last week's buyers. All reports from the bit soft wheat sections tend to confirm the early disastrous advices and those in connection with the prospective damage in Kansas and Nebraska make a very bullish situation, even spring wheat news is still good. Visible supplies decreased 1,232,000. World's shipments were small at slightly less than 10,000,000. On passage statement showed a decrease of nearly 4,000,000 bushels. While without doubt good rains would cause sharp breaks, we still consider wheat bought on basis, a good investment which will probably profit if properly protected.

Corn—Shared somewhat in the strength of wheat. Local bulls were quite aggressive, but found offerings fairly liberal. There was a good demand from shorts on all weak spots and the market closed firm in spite of a good deal of distressed liquidation. The severe decline has shut off sales to arrive. Crop advices are good, although many reports are late planting still come in. Farmers appear to be hard at it, however, and with favorable weather there is every reason to believe the summer indication of a record breaking average, will be realized. Argentine shipments were heavy and make the world's shipments rather unimpressive at 3,181,000. With such conditions no help can be expected from Europe. Weather is an important factor, after such a severe break. Sharp rallies are likely, but the immediate outlook seems to justify sales of July corn on all hard spots.

Oats—Fine weather and glowing crop reports led to some local selling early. Offerings were not large. Local shorts in their attempt to cover brought about a sharp rally in the July and a somewhat smaller advance in September. Some important sales of oats from store were reported, but not full confirmation. Owing to the lateness of the season, terminal sales will be heavily drawn on. Oats are heavily oversold and the holders who are still in the market appear to be well content with good margins. The premium prevailing for cash oats over futures is still an attractive feature to the investor.

Provisions—Showed decided strength. Local shorts were buyers and packing interests made an effort to take in hedges. Quality of hogs arriving indicate a tapering off of the movement and light receipts will be quickly reflected in a higher price.
